Important Information about Procedures for Opening a New Account

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires financial institutions to obtain, verify and record identifying information on new customers. The personal data requested above will allow us to identify each person presented on this application. We may also ask for copies of drivers' licenses, tax IDs, or other identifying documents. By providing us with any telephone numbers for cellular phones or other wireless devices, you are expressly consenting to receiving any communications at those numbers - including but not limited to prerecorded or artificial voice message calls, text messages and calls made by an automatic telephone dialing system - from Braun Financing and its affiliates and agents. This express consent applies to each such telephone number that you provide to us now or in the future and permits such calls regardless of their purpose.

ECOA Notice

Thank you for your business credit application. We will review it carefully and get back to you promptly. If your application for business credit is denied, you have the right to a written statement of the specific reasons for that denial. To obtain that statement, please contact us within 60 days from the date that you were notified of our decision. We will send you a written statement of the reasons for that denial within 30 days of your request for the statement. NOTICE: The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract), because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program, or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers our compliance with this law is the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Consumer Response Center, 1100 Walnut Street, Box #11, Kansas City, MO 64106.
